To kick off Art Basel week, Hope Gainer of Hope International produced, curated, and hosted Eco Artland, an eco-themed event benefiting Take Stock in Children charity at the Star Island waterfront estate of Thomas Kramer. Green art installations ranged from a "Rainforest Parking Lot" to product innovations from The Electric Bicycle Store, with models wearing recycled postcard gear by Julia Kerbich cycling the estate grounds. Guests were pinned with basil corsages upon entering, and toasted with Martini & Rossi Prosecco. They were also offered green mojito cocktails from Bacardi, organic wines from Eno's Winebar, O.N.E. Coconut Water, and Icelandic Glacial water, as well as delicious cuisine from Grass Restaurant & Lounge, Passion of Life Gourmet, and Rock Garden. VIPs included Naomi & Ivan Wilzig, Andreas Bosse, Aaron Resnick, Tony Japour, Tim Heuer, Malinka Max, and Marcella Acosta. Participating artists included Jorge Fernandez, Marc Hubert D'Ge, Nikangel, Stephen Gamson, and Tomas Loewy among others. Galaxy Girl was the DJ. ■
